WATERY GRAVES

CAMPAIGN DECK

All Hands on Deck!

Set sail in Watery Graves, the next chapter of the Ruin of Thandar Campaign!

In Watery Graves the party will select one of four Ships to take on their journey. Each ship has its own special ability, such as launching a giant harpoon. But be careful, each ship also has a Hull score and if it's reduced to 0 the players lose!

You'll take your ship through three very different Encounters, each with several different potential adversaries. In the first Encounter you'll face one of four different Pirate Ships and one of four different Pirate Captains. Will they want to steal your treasures? Perhaps they're looking for captives? Or maybe they simply want to sink you...
